Grunsfeld-Rothgerber Affairs.

Invitations are out for a beautifully appointed dinner which is to be given in the dining room at the Alvarado hotel next Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grunsfeld. It is in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Rothgerber and of Mrs. R. A. Stonehill of New York and Paris, as well as in celebration of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the host and hostess.

Mrs. Stonehill is a sister of Mrs. Alfred and Mrs. Ivan Grunsfeld and will be the guest of the latter during her stay in Albuquerque.

On the sixteenth of February, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grunsfeld and Mrs. Stonehill will leave for New York where they will be joined by Miss Edda Grunsfeld and on the fifth they will sail for Europe to be gone several months.

A number of smaller affairs are planned for next week in honor of Mrs. Stonehill and Mrs. Rothgerber, among them a motor trip to the mesa on Monday at which Mrs. Nell R. Field will be hostess; a bridge given Tuesday by Mrs. Bernard Liffeld; and a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Spits Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Rothgerber are leaving for their home in Denver next Saturday.

Among the many affairs given for Mr. and Mrs. Rothgerber this week were two elaborate family dinners, one at the home of Mrs. Alfred Grunsfeld Wednesday evening and the other at the home of Mrs. Hildegarde Grunsfeld.

Tonight Mrs. G. L. Brooks is giving a bridge party in honor of the popular visitors.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Dave Weinman, 708 West Copper avenue, had two tables of bridge in Mrs. Rothgerber's honor and served a delectable lunch.

Friday, Mrs. Rothgerber was honored as guest at an afternoon given by Mrs. Benjie Jaffe and Mrs. Ben L. Jaffe. Lunch was served at 5 o'clock.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Ivan Grunsfeld gave a bridge party at which there were forty guests and Mrs. Rothgerber was again the guest of honor. The games were exciting and the lunch, served at tables fragrant with lovely flowers, was a triumph in afternoon refreshments and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Ivan Grunsfeld will give an elaborate dinner in honor of Mrs. Stonehill and the Rothgerbers.

Ninety-Five Flip Pasteboards.

Mrs. Louis Huning and Mrs. Walter Connell, 108 North Eighth street, were hostesses Wednesday and Thursday at two of the most pleasant card parties which have been given in some time. Their guests for both days numbered about ninety-five. Auction bridge, always popular, was played during the afternoon. On Wednesday Mrs. Bernard Liffeld, and Mrs. Edward Reid won the prizes and on Thursday Mrs. E. P. Wray and Mrs. T. S. Woolsey were the lucky guests.

Pink, daintiest of colors, was used in decorations of flowers tied with tulle bows and as far as possible in the refreshments which were served upon each occasion.

The hostesses were assisted on Wednesday by Mr. John Borradaile and Mrs. Arno Huning, and on Thursday by Mrs. J. H. Wroth and Mrs. Fred Heyn.

Forest Service Men Hosts.

Last Saturday evening a number of forest service men gave a jolly dance at the Woman's club, with classy music and copious refreshments.

The committee in charge of arrangements was Messrs. A. R. Reed, R. Hill, and Ernest Wohlberg. Those present at the dance were Messrs. Mary McFie, Lora Lovelace, Shinn, Jennie Watkins, Dolly McClellan, Franklin, Grace Borradaile, Gutcheil, and Myers; Messrs. Howard Waha, Adams, Nelson, Newman, Hugh Bryan, H. Calkins, R. SOCIETY

THE BIG AUTO SHOW OPENS MONDAY EVENING

Bewildering Riot of Color Will Transform Armory Building and Decorations Will Be Little Less Interesting Than Fine Array of Up-to-Date Cars to Be Exhibited by Albuquerque Dealers; Society to Flock Around Pretty Penant, Candy and Flower Booths Which Will Be Well Worth Seeing.

The first Albuquerque Auto Show opens Monday evening—with a bang. Everyone is talking of it. Lively interest has been stimulated by the announcements of attractive exhibits. Decorations will be elaborate. There will be a bewildering variety of harmonious colors, each decorator being allowed to use his own taste and ingenuity in the adornment of his booth. By next year certain colors will be chosen and used at each annual show thereafter. For be it known that the Auto Show will become a permanent and perennial proposition.

There will be a number of out-of-town visitors. Several of the state officials and their wives are coming, and many people from various parts of the state have written in for accommodations.

Decorators were busy this afternoon working on the booths which have been built during the week and by Monday everything will be in readiness for the grand opening at 8 o'clock.

The sale of season tickets has been large, and judging from society's excitement everyone in town is going to be there.

The Flower Booth. Miss Gladys Mandell, chairman, assisted by Miss Pearl Corson, Miss Aline Stern, and Miss Virginia Carr, has arranged a delightful flower booth. It will be decorated in white bunting entwined with ferns, and a number of palms will furnish the background for the gay flowers, which are being furnished by the Albuquerque Floral company.

Miss Mandell conceived the good idea of having special flowers for each evening and they will be as follows: Monday, carnations and sweet peas; Tuesday, roses, garden variety; Wednesday, society night, American beauties; and Thursday, violets.

Miss Mandell and her committee will work in the booth and will be assisted in outside work by Misses Selma Stetson, Lulu Benedict, Sadie Morris, Marie Higgins, Margaret Asellin and Lucy Bacon.

The boys who will assist her are Arthur Mandell, Chester Lee, and Allan Lamm.

Pennant Booth. Miss Jean Hubbs, Miss Hazel Maloy and Miss Dolly McClellan are in charge of the pennant booth and have secured an amazing variety of pennants which will be sold over the counter and on a paddle wheel. The booth will be decorated in all colors and sizes of pennants.

A fifty dollar lunch basket and a fine automobile laprobe, green on one side and black on the other, inner lined with rubber and having two ney.

SOCIETY AMATEURS TO GIVE PLAY IN CAPITAL.

Washington is again swept by the amateur theatrical craze. The younger members of society are spending most of their hours rehearsing at home in private or at rehearsal in the oak room of the Raleigh hotel.

The plan to be produced is "Columbia," described as "an allegorical, historical, dramatic pageant." About 200 will take part. "Columbia" will be produced at the Columbia theater. The opening performance will continue for an entire week, matinee and evening performances.

Miss Ruth P. Hall of Princeton, daughter of the late Major William R. Hall medical corps, U. S. A., and Mrs. Hall will have leading parts in "Columbia."

The story in "Columbia" is founded upon historical facts. The first act discloses the court of Spain in 1492. Columbus tells King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella the tale of a wonderful land in the west. Chorus, with gaudy costumes, are introduced. One is composed of Spanish dancers, led by Miss Alice Fowler.

In the second act the various scenes portray the landing of Columbus in

Woman--1914 Model

The 1914 model woman will surpass all previous models yet produced. This is absolutely guaranteed. Men should place their options at once, for, although the supply is not strictly limited, those who make a quick choice will naturally secure the best-looking road companions. Only one to a customer, although those who make a selection which proves unsatisfactory may later have a second choice, after lawfully disposing of the first one.

The 1914 model will be very graceful, with slim body, well curved so as to attract immediate attention. She will be able to withstand much pressure, have small waist, firm clutch, partially visible mechanism below the body, as in previous seasons, and will be absolutely tireless. She will be somewhat hard to control and will require more to run than any previous model, but will make up for this in speed. Owners should put on the brakes very frequently, however, for if she once exceeds the limit, it will be very hard to keep her within the lawful speed thereafter.

There will be several colors to choose from. The very light shade with yellow top and the dark models with brown and black tops will prevail. Both should be handled carefully. Owners should bear in mind that the 1914 model will be very apt to skid if the road isn't pretty smooth. Now step up gentlemen, and select!

Welcoming New Bishop.

Special plans are being made by St. John's parish for the reception in honor of the Right Reverend Frederick Howden, the new bishop of the diocese, who arrived this week to remain in Albuquerque for several days.

The reception will be held Monday evening from 8 until 11 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. G. L. Brooks, 901 West Copper avenue, and will be quite an elaborate affair. All members of the parish and friends of the church are urged to be present.

Dr. and Mrs. P. G. Cornish enjoyed a short visit this week from Mr. and Mrs. John Vele of Colorado Springs, who are en route to Japan for a year's trip.

Auto and Gown to Match, Latest

The automobile point shops of Indianapolis seem to be in line for a record run of business due to the elite of the city adopting a color scheme for their cars and apparel. One young society woman, who has a local reputation as an adept driver, recently appeared at the wheel of a Renault coupe which was painted an attractive shade of lavender and finished in lavender upholstery and bradcloth. Her gown, hat, gloves and shoes were also of this color.

Society liked the idea and the color scheme for car and driver immediately sprang into vogue. Then started the parade of motor cars to the various points shops, a step on the way being made at the modistes to arrange for the new gown.

Will devote its time and enthusiasm next week to the Albuquerque Auto-and-Girly Show. If you are in the Swim you'll be there Early.

Choral Society Rehearses.

The Albuquerque Choral society had a splendid rehearsal Tuesday evening. The success of their concert has given them renewed enthusiasm and several new singers have joined.

Two new songs "My Love Dwell in a Northern Land," by Elgar and "Song of the Vikings," by Panning were practiced. These two selections are short and are excellent choruses.
